Hello Neighbor,

My name's John Turriff, and I'd like to introduce myself as a Cottage Grove resident and possible neighbor of yours. As a member of the local community, familiar with the unique character and charm of Cottage Grove, I'd be honored if you'd consider me as a resource for your real estate needs should you wish to buy or sell in this area.

In addition to knowledge of the local market, as a member of the Prudential Real Estate Professionals team, I have many powerful resources at my fingertips to help those with real estate needs both here and farther afield. I'd be happy to answer any questions over the phone, in person . . . or over a cup of coffee!
